Lately Published by Peter Williamson, and sold at his shop, PRICE TWO SHILLINGS,

THE transactions of the British farmer accountant, adapted to the four seasons of the year, wherein the Gentlemen farmers have a plan of books entirely new, and suitable to their occupation. The method here laid down is so rational and obvious, that it may be practised by any one who understands the common rules of arithmetic.

By following this plan, the farmer can, with very little trouble, know the situation of his affairs at any season. Together with a plan of a sowing book for the spring season; also, a calculation for the harvest season, with every other occurrence in the farming way. By JOHN ROSE, Accountant.

At the same place may be had, price Twopence, The Act of Sederunt, ancient removings.

The Publisher continues to Print Advertisements, Shop Bills, &c. upon his new invented Military and Maritime Printing Press. Those who chuse to employ him in the Printing line, may depend upon having their Work well and soon done, and at moderate rates

Likewise are Published, the Psalms of David in meter, by (Tait and Brady,) upon a very small scale, Price Sixpence in Sheets; and, when bound, may be transported in an ordinary snuff box.

Also are Published, upon the same plan, the Psalms of David, as they are used in the Church of Scotland, and approved of by the General Assembly.

N. B. The publisher once thought never to have again undertaken so laborious a task as collecting the names and places of abode of the inhabitants, in order to publish a new Directory, the profits arising from the sale being so greatly inadequate to the trouble and expence of preparing and correcting it for press; but, at the earnest soliciation of several of his friends, who represented to him the utility of the work, and likewise assured him that no person in business would hesitate to allow him the small sum of two pence for inrolling their names in a work so necessary and so well calculated for the promulgation of their respective professions,—he has been induced once more to attempt serving the Public by publishing a new and correct edition of the Edinburgh Directory.—But, as the two pence for enrolment has been paid by very few, he is under the necessity of making the price of it for this year One Shilling and Two Pence, a sum still much below its intrinsic value, acquainting the public, that as he means to take no advantage of their generosity, those who have paid two pence for enrolling their names, shall have the book upon the payment of One Shilling only, and those who have not are to pay One Shilling and Two Pence.—This he hopes will satisfy the Public that he has no design of imposing upon any person; as the great utility of the work, the smallness of the price, and the trouble and fatigue of the undertaking will evidently appear to the most superficial observer.

The Publisher has been at great trouble in correcting the above list; but as it is impossible to avoid errors altogether, in a work of this nature, he hopes those gentlemen who have been improperly designed or omitted, will give in their names to the Penny Post office, Luckenbooths, where a book will be kept for entering them, and the mistakes corrected in an appendix, which he proposes to publish about the 1st of August, and deliver to the purchasers of the Directory gratis.

My LORD and GENTLEMEN,

The Compiler of this useful work thinks himself highly honoured, in having the opportunity of dedicating this small tribute of his thanks to you, and to none else could he so properly address himself. At same time that he humbly aims at acquitting himself of this duty, he thinks it incumbent on him to represent to every grateful and sensible Citizen, your assiduity in ornamenting and beautifying this Metropolis, by planning out and putting into Execution an easy communication to its center, which must be forever acknowledged by the Inhabitants of this City, to be a Necessary Good, flowing from the projection of men of integrity and ability, who have spared no pains to set on foot, and carry through a work so essentially beneficial to the community at large; and that you may live to see your successors in office enabled to finish the work agreeable to your plan, is, and shall be the earnest wish of,

MY LORD and GENTLEMEN,

Your most obedient and most humble servant,

P. WILLIAMSON.

My LORD, and GENTLEMEN,

At the earnest request of a respectable part of the Inhabitants of Edinburgh, I have been induced, once more, to make an actual Survey of the City, and its much extended Suburbs, and to publish a Directory for the present year.

The Patronage I have always received from the Magistrates of Edinburgh, I acknowledge with gratitude; and flatter myself they will approve of the present Publication.

That the City may flourish to the remotest ages—that the noble efforts made by the present Chief Magistrate for its embellishment, the convenience of its inhabitants, and for the desirable object of making the Port and Harbour of Leith, (so intimately connected with this City), more extensive and commodious for trade—may be crowned with success, is the sincere wish of,

My LORD, and GENTLEMEN,

Your most obedient humble servant,

P. WILLIAMSON.

TO THE PUBLIC.

P. Williamson, respectfully returns his thanks to the Public for past favours; and, while he solicits a continuance thereof, he begs the Public would be particular in adding designations to the address of their letters; by the want of which, it sometimes happens, that a letter is given to a different person of the same name.

To prevent mistakes, all letters from the General Penny post office are marked with a stamp, either paid or unpaid: And the Public are hereby authorized to detain those not marked.
